

GDPR information morning Saturday April 28th 2018, 9.30 am until midday at St Peter's Church, Coggeshall.

Melanie Shillito is Global Head of Privacy and Data Protection for a major international firm and delivers training all over the world. She is offering a morning on Data Protection including GDPR at St Peter's Church in Coggeshall where she worships. After her presentation there will be a time to ask questions about individual circumstances and settings. Melanie has been a member of the congregation at St Peter's for many years and has served on PCC and Deanery Synod so has a good understanding of church context.

Tea and Coffee will be served from 9.00 am. The morning carries no cost but please let us know if you would like to attend either on your own or with others from your team/parish so We can ensure we have enough resources, tea and coffee for all who attend. If you could let the Reverend Chris Davey know by email vicarcoggeshall@btinternet.com by 19th April that would be greatly appreciated. The church building has a disabled toilet and a hearing loop.

Please note :

Parking in Coggeshall is quite limited, the easiest place to park is the village car park which is on Stoneham Street behind the library. (CO6 IUH). The church is about 6 minutes walk up either Queen Street or Church Street. (CO6 IUD). The car park is free of charge. There is also parking in the streets around the church but please be aware church street is a bus route so please park considerably. The car park to the side of the church belongs to the pub and parking is only for customers.
